

IN THE NEWS

The incredible journey of togetherness

Brooke Bond Red Label and The Better India and have joined hands to celebrate true stories of inclusivity across India and in the third chapter of the video series – ‘Breaking Barriers’, they talk about a beautiful love story of Mohini, an acid attack survivor, and her husband. Together, they have broken all barriers with the immense support of their families, who didn’t let societal norms come in the way of acceptance.

While their love story is adorable and inspiring, it all started with a simple wrong number! Mohini and Gaurav started speaking to each other after an initial misplaced call. They saw each other only after about six months, when Mohini sent Gaurav her picture. “For me it was always a big deal that a girl whom you have never met, who is an acid attack survivor and whose entire face is disfigured is loved and accepted despite her looks,” says Mohini.

The third chapter in the five-part video series ‘Breaking Barriers’ is about the beautiful love story of acid attack survivor Mohini and her husband Gaurav

It is the spirit of togetherness that Brooke Bond Red Label and The Better India are highlighting in their series – ‘Breaking Barriers’.

